A Room of One's Own

BOOKS NEW & USED

Having been in business since 1975, A Room of One's Own Bookstore is one of the oldest independent bookstores in the Twin Cities. Located in the historic, walkable neighborhood of the Old Town, we have a great selection of books for sale.

Co-owner Tony, who joined us in 2010, purchased the bookstore as a holiday gift to himself and his wife, Barbara. Barbara and Tony have owned the bookstore for over 20 years. Barbara has been a part of the store's success and Tony has been a part of the store's success.

With a focus on highlighting local authors, we carry a wide selection of books and magazines for people and groups of all ages. We also carry a variety of audio, video, and digital content.
